

THE WORLD'S NEWS IN BRIEF

London.—Kitty Marion, Kurst Park "arsonette," arrested today after hurling heavy package of suffragette literature through window of home office.

Washington.—House Republicans plan taking another whirl at the Caminetti-McReynolds-McNab mess.

Fairfield, Ill.—Engineer Hugh Funk killed, Fireman John Carroll badly injured, in wreck of fast passenger train No. 24 on Southern Railway near Wayne City. Wreck caused by boys who placed bolt on track.

Colorado Springs.—Bandit entered office of Cliff House at Manitou, robbed cash register and shot and killed J. Whitehead, night watchman.

London.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, arrived here today from Paris. Again said he never would return to U. S.

Amiens, France.—Boillot, driving a Peugeot, won Grand Prix auto race against field of 20. Goux, also driving a Peugeot, was second.

New York.—Former Police Lieut. Chas. Becker, convicted of murder of Gambler Herman Rosenthal, today was denied new trial by Supreme Court Justice Goff.

Kansas City.—Shake-up in police force here costs city services of John P. McCauley, the police officer who arrested Leon Czolgoz, assassin of Pres. McKinley.

Belleville, Ill.—Burglars cleaned out public library here, which is stationed directly over police station.

New Roads, La.—Felix Major killed and his father mortally wounded in feud here. Felix's brother was killed by Joe Stroman, who committed suicide two weeks ago.

Panama.—Panamanians have plans for erection of monument to Theodore Roosevelt, to be erected at north end of canal under way.

Marinette, Wis.—After surprising medical world by continuing to live with broken neck, Hiram Reeves, head of Rural Telephone Co., is dying of ptomaine poisoning.

Paris.—Seven men killed, ten injured, by explosion of boiler in suburbs.

Belfast.—Dozens were injured here today in rioting between Nationalists and Unionists. Revolvers, clubs and stones used in battle.

New York.—Mrs. Ida Shapiro, Brooklyn, told police judge her father's ghost had told her Mrs. Clara Steiner had stolen her diamond ring. Mrs. Steiner held until ghost's information may be probed.

New York.—Firemen with hooks fished Hyman Katoff, 8, uninjured, from third story level between walls of six story apartments, where he had stuck after fall from roof.

Winsted, Conn.—When Harry Henderling, New Haven baggage master, was deserted by his wife, he celebrated by decking his house in bunting and shooting giant fire crackers.

London.—Anna Held is billed to appear in corsetless gowns and net stockings studded with diamonds in the new show "Come Over Here."

New York.—Union bakers of this city sent Paterson, N. J., strikers loaf of bread weighing 180 pounds, cake weighing 150 pounds and roll weighing 50 pounds.

Indianapolis.—Search for J. H. Richardson, missing Gettysburg veteran, ended. He's in a Cincinnati morgue.

St. Louis.—C. L. Meyers, contracting agent for Bell Telephone at Nashville, Tenn., bridegroom of three months, killed himself in hotel here.

Columbia, Mo.—Jim Flynn, heavy-weight pugilist, arrested for speeding. Going over 50 miles an hour.

Little Rock, Ark.—James H. Harrod, prominent in state and national politics, struck and killed by auto while alighting from street car.

St. Louis.—Andrew Koehn, trying to establish record by rowing from